Sylvangatan 6: furnishing ideas

1 room + sleeping alcove · 30 m² · Solna. A warm, colourful vintage-Scandi home based on your inspiration photos.

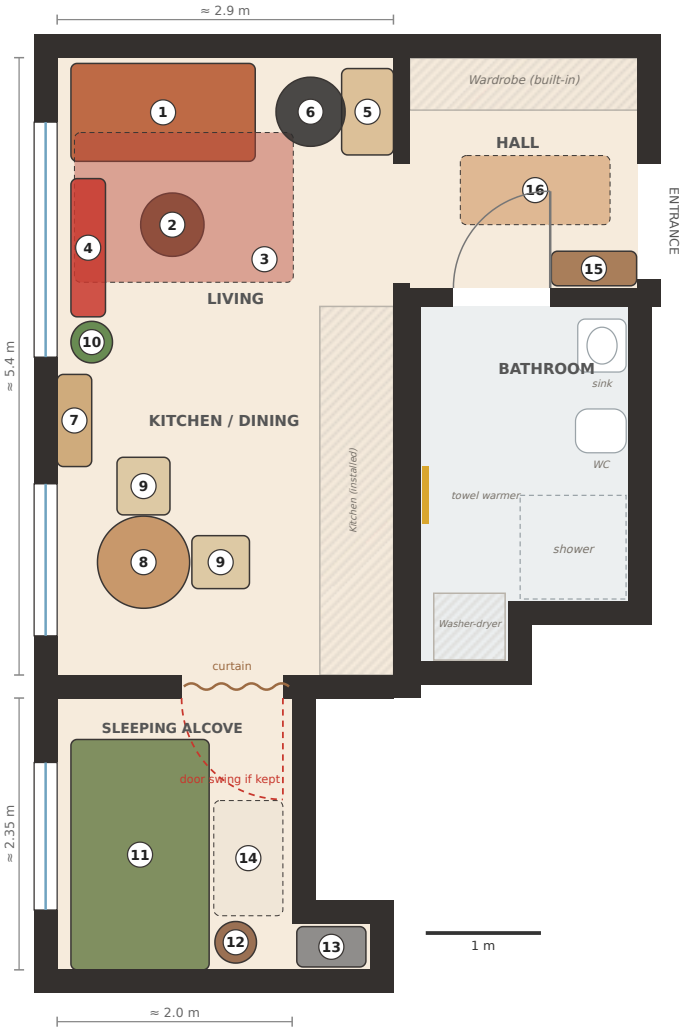

3D overview of the whole flat (walls cut at about 1 m so you can see in). Sizes are estimated from the floor plan.

The idea

Honey-coloured wood, a rust velvet sofa, cane chairs on chrome frames, a paper lantern and mushroom lamps for soft light, lots of plants, books on display and a gallery wall of colourful prints, just like your photos. The white kitchen and bathroom stay as they are: colour comes from textiles, art and plants, so nothing needs painting (good for a rental).

How the main room works

- The main room is about 2.9 × 5.4 m, so it splits into two zones: living + work by the first window and dining by the second.
- The sofa is a 2-seater. The 3-seater drawn on the original plan would leave no room for the desk.
- Work corner next to the hall opening, with your chair. Until you buy the desk, roll the chair to the dining table.
- A walkway of about 1 m stays clear along the kitchen.

Bed size: check this at the viewing. The alcove is about 2.0 × 2.35 m, and its door opens into the alcove (red dashed line). With the door in place, a 105×200 bed is the widest that still lets the door open fully. A 120×200 bed (shown here) fits if the door is taken off (ask Birger Bostad, store it and rehang it when you move out) and a linen curtain is hung instead. 140 cm is too wide.

Living room + work corner

Looking from the dining area towards the sofa wall. The work corner is on the right by the hall opening.

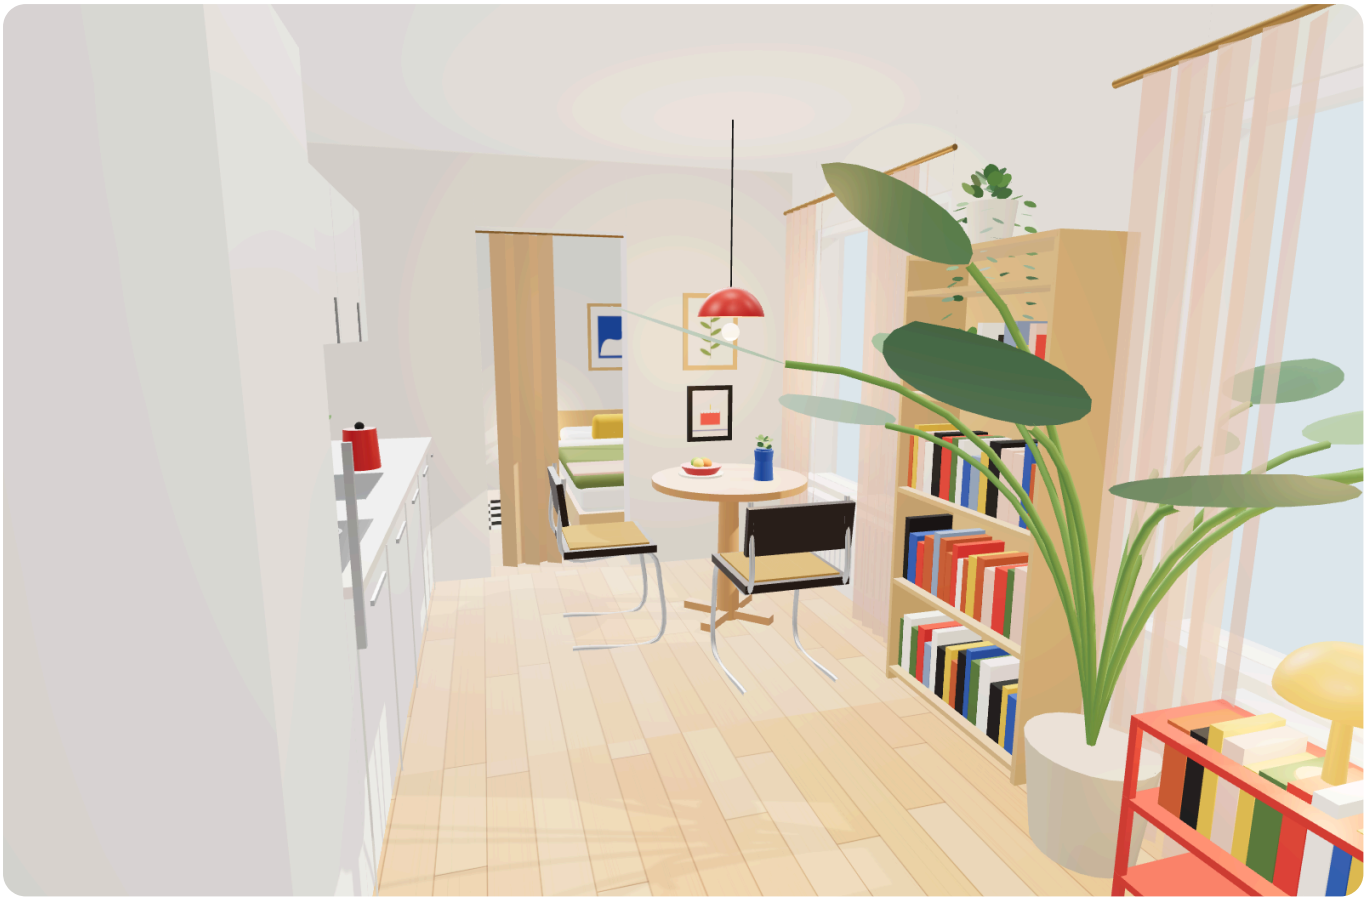

Key pieces

- Rust or terracotta velvet 2-seater with mustard, cream and olive cushions and a blush throw.
- Gallery wall above the sofa: 5–7 frames in black and natural wood, mixing abstract cut-outs, ink drawings and a lemon print.
- Paper lantern over a small dark-wood round coffee table, on a vintage rug.

Small-space tricks

- A low red metal shelf under the window holds books, a mushroom lamp and trailing plants without blocking the light.
- A wall-hung shelf + cork board above the small desk keeps the floor free.
- A tall plant by the window marks where the living area ends.

Dining + kitchen

Looking from the living area towards the dining table, with the sleeping alcove behind the curtain.

Dining

- Round table Ø 75–80 cm by the window: seats 2 (4 at a squeeze), and it's easy to walk around in a narrow room. Buy this first. It's also your desk until the small one arrives.
- Cantilever cane chairs (Cesca-style) look light and are common second-hand. Your work chair is the third seat.
- Red pendant hung low over the table (about 70 cm above the top) makes it feel like its own little room.

Kitchen (stays white)

- Add colour with a red kettle, wooden chopping boards, glass jars, a small plant and a lemon print leaning on the worktop.
- A bookshelf between the two windows holds books, a trailing plant and a framed photo.
- Ask the landlord before drilling into kitchen tiles. Small nail holes in walls for pictures are normally fine in Swedish rentals.

Sleeping alcove

From the doorway: the bed under the window, a mushroom lamp on a stool, and art above the headboard.

Key pieces

- Bed 120×200 along the window wall (or 105×200 if you keep the door; see page 2). Buy now.
- Olive bedding, white sheets, a mustard cushion and a blush throw.
- Mushroom lamp on a small wooden stool as a bedside table.
- A cobalt cut-out print above the bed, plus a smaller one beside it.

Storage + light

- An open clothes rail fits the little niche, with a basket underneath. The hall also has a built-in wardrobe (on the plan).
- Linen curtains on the window; add a blackout lining if you need dark summer nights.
- A hanging plant in the window and a small checked rug by the bed.

Bathroom + hall

The bathroom stays white. Colour comes from a mustard towel, a striped mat, a wooden shelf and a plant.

Bathroom

- Mustard towels, a striped bath mat, and a small wooden shelf with a plant above the washer-dryer.
- A round, black-framed mirror and a small botanical print.
- The plan shows a towel warmer. If it's electric, it adds a little to your electricity bill.

Hall

- Built-in wardrobe (already there), a round mirror, a slim bench for shoes, wooden hooks and a striped runner.
- Measure the front door and the opening to the living room (about 1 m wide) before buying a sofa.

Second-hand shopping tips

- Where: Blocket, Facebook Marketplace, Sellpy, Tradera, Myrorna, Stadsmissionen, Erikshjälpen, and IKEA's "As-is" corner.
- Swedish search words: rottingstol / Cesca (cane chair), rislampa (paper lantern), svamplampa (mushroom lamp), sammetssoffa (velvet sofa), orientalisk matta (oriental rug), runt matbord (round table).
- Many sellers deliver for a small fee. Otherwise rent a van for a few hours and pick up several things in one trip.

Cost estimate

Approximate 2026 prices in SEK. The bed and table are bought new right away; almost everything else can come later, second-hand.

1. Buy now (new)

Item	SEK
Bed frame 120×200 with slatted base (simple wood or metal)	1,200–2,500
Mattress 120×200 (pocket spring or foam, medium-firm). Spend most here.	2,000–4,000
Duvet, pillow and one set of bedding	800–1,500
Round dining table, Ø 75–80 cm	800–2,500
Total now (a sensible middle choice is about 7,000)	≈ 4,800–10,500

Delivery is usually 300–800 SEK extra. A 105 cm bed is roughly 10–20% cheaper than 120 cm.

2. First 1–2 weeks (new or second-hand)

Kitchen basics: pan, pot, knife, chopping board, plates, glasses, cutlery	800–2,000
Towels + bath mat	300–700
Alcove curtain + paper lantern + bedside lamp	500–1,300
Subtotal	≈ 1,600–4,000

3. Later, second-hand

Rug ~130×190 + small coffee table	550–1,700

Gallery wall: prints + frames	400–1,500
Plants + pots	300–800
Subtotal	≈ 4,600–14,200

All together: about 11,000–28,000 SEK. If you're patient with second-hand shopping, expect around 16,000–18,000, spread over a few months. With roughly 10,000 SEK a month left after rent, bills and food, the "later" items come to about 2,000–3,500 SEK a month over 3–4 months.
